ARS ITALICA CALVISIUS OSCIETRA - *Royal

Extracted from the Russian sturgeon, a species with origins from the Caspian Sea, Black Sea, and Azov Sea, this medium-sized fish can weigh from 44-132 lbs and requires approximately 10 to 11 years to harvest this caviar. Only the largest roe are selected for this elegant caviar, with a subtle fruity and nutty flavor. The color ranges from dark brown to beige. Considered to be one of the more notable caviars, enjoy it on its own. Suggested pairing: top quality Brut and silky sparkling wines.

CALVISIUS SIBERIAN - *Classic

Siberian Classic is a caviar extracted from the Siberian sturgeon. A medium-sized fish with a weight between 17 and 88 lbs, originally found in the fluvial basins of Siberia (from the Ob to the Kolyma rivers) and Lake Baikal. The time required to harvest this caviar is approximately 6 to 8 years. Siberian Classic Caviar boasts a strong character and is very versatile in the kitchen. The size of the egg differs with the age of the sturgeon and it's color ranges from grey to amber. Pairs nicely with Potatoes, sour cream, crème fraiche, soft bread, or in the most traditional Russian way, with blinis. Suggested pairing: Brut champagnes or dry white, mineral driven wines and vodka.
